

ALOHAS FROM THE ISLANDS . . . In a tropical paradise, four Torrance residents pose in front of their cottage at the Halekulani where they are having an island holiday. They are Mr. and Mrs. Dean Sears and Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Whitney. Last Wednesday the foursome left for Kauai then on to Hana, Maui; Hilo and Kona on Hawaii. The couples made the trip by plane. The Whitneys will spend two weeks in Hawaii and the Searses will remain for a month.

League for New Parents to View Film on Childs' Fears

League for New Parents will meet Sept. 20 at 24242 Hawthorne Ave., 10 a.m., according to the director and acting president, Mary Jane Hungerford, Ph.D.

Mothers or future mothers are invited to attend the meeting during which a film "Fears of Children" will be shown. Dorothy Law will lead a discussion following the movie.

Evening meetings have been planned in order to include fathers. Child care is furnished by appointment at 502 Camino de Encanto, Hollywood Riviera. The league is an international organization devoted to the education of the parents of the pre-schooler.

Dr. Hungerford, mother of three children, is well known for her understanding of children and family relations and is also a teacher of natural childbirth methods.

She was responsible for starting and presently is supervisor of the Education of Expectant Parents at the American Institute of Family Relations.

She was featured in the California Parent-Teacher magazine in March 1955 and in the Child Family Digest, June 1955. The story in the former magazine was on "Preparation for Childbirth" in which pictures of her and her son appeared.

Further information concerning the league may be obtained from Mrs. George W. Mercer.

Choir Meets For Dinner

Nearly 70 persons attended a patio barbecue Thursday evening at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Allen E. Hofferber, 1624 Iris Ave.

The occasion marked the start of rehearsals for the newly combined senior college and adult choirs of the First Methodist Church.

The Rev. Donald Shelby, associate minister, also is choir director.

As chairman of the music committee for the church, Mrs. Hofferber was hostess for the event.

Psychology Subject of New Classes

New series of fall classes to be offered by the Compton Counseling Service, 1001 E. Rosecrans Ave., Compton, include two which will begin next week.

"Physical expressions of emotional problems" will apply the insights of psychology to everyday life. Consideration will be given to some of the ways in which emotional problems find expression through the physical body.

Practical and tested methods for meeting fears, anxieties and stress will be discussed by Mrs. Jans Rice, instructor of the class. This group will meet for 10 weeks on Thursdays, 9:30 to 11:30 a.m., beginning Sept. 19.

"Creative expression through color" will afford those attending the group a means of expression of the deeper feelings, and gain insight into their own personality. Mrs. Nellie Milligan will be the leader. This group will meet Saturdays, 1:30 to 3 p.m., beginning Sept. 21.

A battery of aptitude tests, which will include an I.Q. and personality inventory, will be offered at the Compton Counseling Service Saturday, Sept. 14, at 1 p.m. The tests will be administered on a group basis and appointments will be made for individual evaluation of the tests.
